

About

The objectives of the project are as follows:

- Raise awareness to the general public in relation to eco-tourism and influence their travel choices and behaviors,
- Transfer information on the impact of tourism on the environment,
- Provide knowledge in relation to regional diversity and the significance of volunteer activities to preserve it,
- Provide participants with knowledge in relation to tourist ethics in accordance to the World Tourism Organization,
- Promote the exchange of experience and demonstrate best practices on personal engagement in the development of local communities,
- To use the resources of participants to create plans for volunteering in eco-tourism (group work),
- To motivate participants to become conscious and active citizens.